KRISHNA MAHAVIDYALAYA, RETHARE BK

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

27th January 2020

REPORT

Nursery is a place where plants are cultivated and grown to usable size. Nursery techniques includes sapling, seedling and grafting of economically important and ornamental plants through scientific methods. The workshop was organized by Department of Botany on 27th January 2020. About 60 students benefited through this workshop. The workshop on Nursery techniques is organized to enhance and improve conceptual and practical knowledge on development of nurseries and techniques involves in nursery management and to plan for raising quality planting materials for raising plantation. The Chief Guest of workshop was Dr. D. S. Mali, Assistant Professor, Jaywantrao Bhosale Krishna College of Agriculture, Rethare Bk. The Expert speakers Mr. G. K. Mohite and A. R. Jagdale, Assistant Professor, Jaywantrao Bhosale Krishna College of Agriculture, Rethare Bk. was invited to conduct the workshop.

Inauguration Function: Dr. S. H. Jadhav, Convenor of Workshop presented the theme of workshop. Dr. D. S. Dalavi, IQAC Co-ordinator welcomed and given brief introduction of the Chief guest and resource persons of workshop as well as given brief introduction of them. Dr. M. S. Bansode, Head Department of Botany presided over the inauguration function. Speaking on this occasion Chief guest Dr. D. S. Mali addressed to the participants by stating the objectives and scope of nurseries.

Session I:

Expert speaker Mr. G. K. Mohite, Assistant Professor, Jaywantrao Bhosale Krishna College of Agriculture, Rethare Bk., enlighten the participants on various steps in nursery development and maintenance. He explained different activities performed for the successful production, care and marketing of different planting materials like seeds, seedling, cuttings etc. in various nursery sections.

Session II:

In second session Dr. A. R. Jagdale, Assistant Assistant Professor, Jaywantrao Bhosale Krishna College of Agriculture, Rethare Bk., stated that how to grow plants in an open environment, maintain a good quality of plants and how to protect the plants from pests and diseases. He said that it is the responsibility of the nursery growers to develop good quality of plants for their customers. He emphasized on various propagation techniques likes grafting, budding, air layering and tissue culture techniques during the workshop. He also mentioned about seed bed preparation, mulching, laying of drip irrigation, planting of seedlings, etc.

At the end of each session, the speakers answered queries raised by the participants. In the feedback session participants expressed their gratitude about the informative workshop.

Mr. Suryawanshi P. A., Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, proposed vote of thanks.

Workshop 0N

NURSERY TECHNIQUES

Organized by

Department of Botany

27th January 2020

Dr. D. S. Mali Chief Guest Dr. M. S. Bansode

President

Dr. S. H. Jadhav Convenor Dr. D. S. Dalavi Co-ordinator

